Dombi, si domba kecil, berbaring di padang rumput. Matanya tidak mau menutup.

Dombi, the little sheep, lies in the meadow. His eyes will not close.

Dombi mencoba menghitung awan. Tetapi awan terus berubah bentuk, jadi ia lupa hitungannya.

Dombi tries to count the clouds. But the clouds keep changing shape, so he loses count.

Lalu Dombi menatap langit. "Satu bintang, dua bintang, tiga bintang..." Bintang-bintang berkelip pelan.

Then Dombi gazes at the sky. "One star, two stars, three stars..." The stars twinkle softly.

"Empat... lima... enam..." Mata Dombi mulai berat. Angin malam bernyanyi lirih.

"Four... five... six..." Dombi's eyes grow heavy. The night wind hums softly.

Aaah...

"Tujuh... delapan..." Dombi menguap lebar.
Aaaah...

"Seven... eight..." Dombi yawns a big yawn. Aaaah...

Sebelum sampai sembilan, Dombi sudah tertidur. Bintang-bintang menjaganya sampai pagi.

Before he reached nine, Dombi was fast asleep. The stars watched over him until morning.
