Setiap musim liburan, Dika menginap di rumah Nenek di desa. Malam itu langit sangat cerah, dan Dika sulit tidur karena terlalu bersemangat.

Every holiday, Dika stays at Grandma's house in the village. That night the sky was very clear, and Dika could not sleep because he was too excited.

Nenek membawa selimut dan duduk bersamanya di teras. "Mau melihat peta bintang?" tanya Nenek. Dika mengangguk.

Grandma brought a blanket and sat with him on the porch. "Would you like to see the star map?" asked Grandma. Dika nodded.

Nenek menunjuk tiga bintang yang berjajar. "Dulu kakekmu memakai bintang-bintang itu sebagai penunjuk arah saat berlayar," katanya.

"Your grandfather used those stars to find his way when he sailed," Grandma said, pointing to three stars in a row.

Dika menghubungkan bintang-bintang dengan jarinya di udara. Ia menemukan bentuk layang-layang, lalu bentuk perahu.

Dika joined the stars with his finger in the air. He found the shape of a kite, then the shape of a boat.

"Setiap bintang punya cerita," kata Nenek. "Ada yang tentang kesabaran, ada yang tentang keberanian." Dika bertanya cerita mana yang paling Nenek sukai.

*"Every star has a story," said Grandma. "Some are about patience, some about courage."
Dika asked which story Grandma liked best.*

Nenek tersenyum. "Cerita malam ini, bersamamu." Dika memeluk Nenek. Matanya mulai berat, dan bintang-bintang tampak makin kabur.

"Tonight's story, with you," Grandma smiled. Dika hugged her. His eyes grew heavy, and the stars began to blur.
